First Steps

- * Define who you are as a Church
- * Develop Relationships
- * Tell your story

Define who you are:

- * Take time to explore your possibilities.
- * What is the one thing your church does well?
- * What are people most proud of in your church?

Define who you are:

- What is standing in your way?
- What are your roadblocks?
- What needs to go?
- What steps are you taking to move in the right direction.

When we let go of what was –
we begin to see the possibilities of what could be.

opportunity zone

Oh the Possibilities

If you were gifted $100,000

What is the first thing
you would add to your ministry?

Don't think outside the box.

Think like there is no
box.

The need to let go

Resistance will begin.

Excuses to not move forward will begin to rise.

The doubters will become more vocal and less supportive.

The fear isn't as much of what could be as it is giving up what was.

@PeacefulMindPeacefulLife

May your choices
reflect your hopes,
not your fears.

Nostalgia

the art of making the past seem better than it was

I will not go back to Egypt!

Mt. Sinai is where everything changed for the Israelites.

Sinai was their turning point.

Where is your turning point?

When is it you would feel you have made the turn and are on your way to a new or successful ministry.

Ask yourself this everyday!

What decision have you made today that will move
your church or ministry forward?

What is standing in your way?

Developing Relationships

Developing Relationships

Who are the decision makers in your church?

Who are the change agents?

Who are the gentle/silent giants?

Who are the worker bees?

Who are the most dedicated?

Developing Relationships

Identify 10 people to contact

- * Make a phone call
- * Write a note
- * Take them to coffee or lunch

Listen

- Hearing the story of your members will help connect them to the story of the church.
- What are you hearing from the heart of those you are visiting?
- Listen for the heart of their story – what brings them joy?

IN A GOOD CONVERSATION,
ONE PERSON TALKS WHILE THE OTHER LISTENS.

-Charlie Brown

- Connect your story with the heart of your members.
- Invite others to share their testimony.
- Show how your ministry is changing lives and making a difference.

Tell your story...

Putting it all together.

- Define who you are
 - Develop relationships
 - Share your story
- Let go of what's holding you back and enjoy the blessings of your flourishing ministry.
