DAKOTAS ANNUAL CONFERENCE Ministerial Education Debt Reduction Application

GUIDELINES         Probationary members of the Dakotas Annual Conference may be eligible to receive up to a Yearly Maximum as determined by the DAC Board of Ordained Ministry per year for up to six successive years for education debt retirement. Eligibility continues after Elder's ordination. The current yearly recommend amount is $1000 with maximum overall Debt Reduction of $6,000.         The following stipulations determine eligibility:         1. All educational requirements for Elder's Orders have been completed.         2. Application is made initially in his or her first full-time appointment and continues in full time appointment. Less-than-full-time appointments may receive grants on a pro rata basis. Appointm to attend school do not qualify.         3. The applicant must be in an appointment within the bounds of the DAC. Debt Reduction support cease with any termination of relationship with the DAC, or appointment outside the bounds of the onference.         4. The applicant must be in an appointment but who are not yet probationary members of to DAC may receive debt reduction funds. But these funds will be considered "loan-grants" un person is commissioned. Loan-grants must be repaid or forgiven by service in the conference. C service under appointment after probationary membership will count toward forgiveness.         The DAC will determine the amount to be granted each year. Exception to this policy may be approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Application forms must be requested annually by the new pastor from the Conference. Debt Reduction Grand decisions will be made at the Board of Ordained Ministry meeting at Annu Conference.         Image:	Address:
GUIDELINES         Probationary members of the Dakotas Annual Conference may be eligible to receive up to a Yearly Maximum as determined by the DAC Board of Ordained Ministry per year for up to six successive years for education debt retirement. Eligibility continues after Elder's ordination. The current yearly recommend amount is $1000 with maximum overall Debt Reduction of $6,000.         The following stipulations determine eligibility:       1. All educational requirements for Elder's Orders have been completed.         2. Application is made initially in his or her first full-time appointment and continues in full time appointment. Less-than-full-time appointments may receive grants on a pro rata basis. Appointmet to attend school do not qualify.         3. The applicant must be in an appointment within the bounds of the DAC. Debt Reduction support cease with any termination of relationship with the DAC, or appointment outside the bounds of the onference.         4. The applicant must be in an appointment within the bounds of the DAC. Debt Reduction support cease with any termination of relationship with the DAC, or appointment outside the bounds of the onference.         5. Applicants who meet the rest of the requirements but who are not yet probationary members of the DAC will determine the amount to be granted each year. Exception to this policy may be approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Application forms must be requested annually by the new pastor from the Conference. Debt Reduction Debt Reduction Elevel elevel at the Board of Ordained Ministry meeting at Annual Conference.         For DAC will determine the amount to be granted each year. Exception to this policy may be approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Application Debt Reduction	Phone: _	Email:
<ul> <li>Probationary members of the Dakotas Annual Conference may be eligible to receive up to a Yearly Maximum as determined by the DAC Board of Ordained Ministry per year for up to six successive years for education debt retirement. Eligibility continues after Elder's ordination. The current yearly recommend amount is $1000 with maximum overall Debt Reduction of $6,000.</li> <li>The following stipulations determine eligibility: <ol> <li>All educational requirements for Elder's Orders have been completed.</li> <li>Application is made initially in his or her first full-time appointment and continues in full time appointment. Less-than-full-time appointments may receive grants on a pro rata basis. Appoint to a trend school do not qualify.</li> <li>The applicant must be in an appointment within the bounds of the DAC. Debt Reduction support cease with any termination of relationship with the DAC, or appointment outside the bounds of the conference.</li> <li>The applicant will supply evidence of educational debt related to ministerial education</li> <li>Applicants who meet the rest of the requirements but who are not yet probationary members of t DAC may receive debt reduction funds. But these funds will be considered "loan-grants" un person is commissioned. Loan-grants must be repaid or forgiven by service in the conference.</li> </ol> </li> <li>The DAC will determine the amount to be granted each year. Exception to this policy may be approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Application forms must be requested annually by the new pastor from the Conference.</li> <li>I request Ministerial Education Debt Reduction Funds in the amount of $1000.</li> </ul>	Commissioning Date: Current Appointment:
<ul> <li>determined by the DAC Board of Ordained Ministry per year for up to six successive years for education debt retirement. Eligibility continues after Elder's ordination. The current yearly recommend amount is $1000 with maximum overall Debt Reduction of $6,000.</li> <li>The following stipulations determine eligibility: <ol> <li>All educational requirements for Elder's Orders have been completed.</li> <li>Application is made initially in his or her first full-time appointment and continues in full time appointment. Less-than-full-time appointments may receive grants on a pro rata basis. Appointm to attend school do not qualify.</li> <li>The applicant must be in an appointment within the bounds of the DAC. Debt Reduction support cease with any termination of relationship with the DAC, or appointment outside the bounds of the conference.</li> <li>The applicant will supply evidence of educational debt related to ministerial education</li> <li>Applicants who meet the rest of the requirements but who are not yet probationary members of t DAC may receive debt reduction funds. But these funds will be considered "loan-grants" un person is commissioned. Loan-grants must be repaid or forgiven by service in the conference. C service under appointment after probationary membership will count toward forgiveness.</li> </ol> </li> <li>The DAC will determine the amount to be granted each year. Exception to this policy may be approved by the Board of Ordained Ministry. Application forms must be requested annually by the new pastor from the Conference. I request Ministerial Education Debt Reduction Funds in the amount of $1000.</li> <li>For the year:</li></ul>		GUIDELINES
Board of Ordained Ministry. Application forms must be requested annually by the new pastor from the Confere Loan Officer. Debt Reduction Grand decisions will be made at the Board of Ordained Ministry meeting at Annu Conference. I request Ministerial Education Debt Reduction Funds in the amount of $1000. For the year: Signature: Date:	determined retirement. I maximum o The 1. / 2. 3. 4.	by the DAC Board of Ordained Ministry per year for up to six successive years for education debt Eligibility continues after Elder's ordination. The current yearly recommend amount is $1000 with verall Debt Reduction of $6,000. e following stipulations determine eligibility: All educational requirements for Elder's Orders have been completed. Application is made initially in his or her first full-time appointment and continues in full time appointment. Less-than-full-time appointments may receive grants on a pro rata basis. Appointments to attend school do not qualify. The applicant must be in an appointment within the bounds of the DAC. Debt Reduction support will cease with any termination of relationship with the DAC, or appointment outside the bounds of the conference. The applicant will supply evidence of educational debt related to ministerial education Applicants who meet the rest of the requirements but who are not yet probationary members of the DAC may receive debt reduction funds. But these funds will be considered "loan-grants" until the person is commissioned. Loan-grants must be repaid or forgiven by service in the conference. Only
For the year:	Board of Ore Loan Office	dained Ministry. Application forms must be requested annually by the new pastor from the Conference r. Debt Reduction Grand decisions will be made at the Board of Ordained Ministry meeting at Annual
Signature:	l request N	Ainisterial Education Debt Reduction Funds in the amount of $1000.
Date:	For the ye	ar:
	Signature
RETURN TO:	Date:
RETURN TO:	-
	RETURN	TO:
Student Loan Officer

bea.stucke@dakotasumc.org 605-996-6552