I'm coming to camp! Now what?

Bring your favorite stuffed animal along for the adventure as you and your child explore fun activities, make new friends, and share precious moments together. This is more than just a camp—it's a chance to bond, grow, and create memories as you swim, do crafts, enjoy s'mores at the campfire, sing, grow in faith and eat great food.

Two Weeks Before Camp - Full payment for camp is due. And be sure your Release of Liability Waiver & Public Relations Release and Medical Information/Health Form have been filled out online. They are required to attend camp. Forms and store payments MUST be done online by four days previous to camp, or bring them to camp check-in.

What happens when I get to camp?

- ▶ Go to the Living Waters Retreat Center when you arrive at camp to check-in.
- ▶ Bring, or have completed on-line, your two forms for each person:
 - Medical Information/Health
 - Release of Liability Waiver & Public Relations Release
- ▶ There will be a short health screening and you will have time to meet with our health care manager and go over your Health Form.
- ▶ Adults are expected to be in charge of all medications for their families/campers and medications must be locked up at all times, either in your vehicle or a lockbox. All medication must be in original containers labeled with name and dosage.
- ▶ On the Health Form, please make sure that you list the people authorized to pick up your child if they will be going home with someone other than the person they came with. We cannot release your camper unless that person's name is on the health form and they have a picture ID
- ▶ Camp Store money will be given to camp staff at check-in. Any unspent money will be returned at the end of camp.
- ▶ Remember, young campers are required to be supervised by their adult co-camper during check-in and throughout camp.
- ▶ Because of privacy concerns, do not share photos on social media of any campers other than your own.

See the next page for Packing List and more information.
