DAKOTAS CONFERENCE

2019 ‘Mission u’

Learning Together for the Transformation of the World

Practicing Resurrection: The Gospel of Mark and Radical Discipleship – Explores what it means to live a life of radical discipleship today using the Gospel of Mark as the foundation. We will explore the issues of poverty, gender, justice, liberation, equality, and others using Mark as a guide.

Study Leader - Marty Toepke-Floyd

Women United for Change: 150 Years in Mission Commemorating UMW’s 150th anniversary in 2019. It will explore the history of UMW and the many ways we have changed and continue to change the face of missions. – Study Leader – Jodi Cataldo

What About Our Money? A Faith Response – This study explores how we relate to money within the context of our faith. We will discover how to live closer to God and God’s people. The focus is both personal and communal. We’ll explore our relationship with money, the money choices available to us, and how we individually and collectively respond in light of our faith. Sheri Meister – Southern Site

Jeff Pospisil – Northern Site

Note: CEU Credit is not available for “What About Our Money” study at the Northern Site.

SCHOLARSHIPS: Each local unit may receive one scholarship for ½ of the tuition for a first-timer. Ethnic Scholarships are also available. Contact Registrar of sites for details

BOOKS for classes may be purchased through UMW Resource Center 800-305-9857 or www.umwresources.org. A limited number will be available at the ‘Mission u’ site.
